

ReSource Zagreb, March 15th, 2024

Zagreb, Hotel Sheraton

PROGRAM

2nd Regional Re-Source Croatia Conference

8:00 Registration

09:00 Welcome Speech

09:30 PRESENTATION 1: What novelties does the New Electricity Market Design bring?

09:50 PANEL 1: Regulatory Framework for Power Purchase Agreements

- Who are the new participants eligible to engage in the wholesale electricity market in light of the new Rules on the Organization of the Wholesale Electricity Market
- Do the new Rules enable the direct purchase of electricity between the producer and the end consumer without the involvement of a third party in physical Power Purchase Agreements
- What regulatory barriers need to be removed to facilitate easier PPA signing
- Do the new Rules enable signing a multi-buyers PPA

10:50 Coffee break

11:10 PRESENTATION 2: Introduction to various PPA market models

11:30 PANEL 2: Different perspectives on contracting the purchase of renewable energy

- Perspectives of buyers, producers, and traders
- Why sign a PPA – different perspectives of wholesale market participants
- Key contracting elements to consider – risk protection (hedging), financing, profitability
- "Hourly maintaining system": Advantages of the system and risk protection (hedging)
- MSP (Market Splitting Point) – aggregation possibilities, options, providers, and characteristics of this PPA model

-
- Treatment of virtual PPA contracts in accounting. IFRS, HRFS. When is it considered pure speculation, and when is it treated as a derivative, and how is it recorded

12:30 PRESENTATION 3: The role of the Guarantees of Origin in the decarbonization strategy

13:00 PANEL 3: The role of the Guarantees of Origin in the decarbonization strategy

- What are Guarantees of Origin and what is their importance in decarbonization
- How the Guarantees of Origin system works
- Auctions of Guarantees of Origin

14:00 B2B & LUNCH